LOWER CLASSMEN IN PRIMARY VOTE NAME CANDIDATES

The primary elections for the student council were completed last night when the freshmen and sophomores voted for their representatives. Next week the final election will be held, three boys and four girls being named for the positions. The freshmen have not as yet voted for their class officers, and Principal Lee was in charge of their meeting last night. Eight boys were nominated by the first year class instead of the usual seven. This was done as the freshmen have as yet no president and of the other classes the president is automatically a member of the council. Following are the representatives from the sophomore class: Helen Barta, Alfretha Dempsey, Ada Storch, Ruth Coy, Margaret Spencer, Helen Clarkson, Marjorie Treman, Katherine McGinnis, Edgar Hansen, Herbert Wilson, Richard Olson, Herbert Spencer, Jacob Viner, Harold Biad and Charles Olson.

The first year students voted the following for nominations to the student council: Clarence March, George Lambert, Marion Vernon, Donavin Ogilvie, Robert Willis, Ludwig Stapp, Julius Clark, Harry Specht, Florence Dittman, Helen Davis, Florence Stewart, Dorothy Foster, Katherine Grant, Mary Davis, Mary Gray, Byrl Williams and Marion Peterson.

SUFFERED WITH CATARRH 20 YEARS—TREATED BY DR. COFFEY.
Carl Nelson was talking to a friend the other day about his deafness. He says, "Go to Dr. Coffey. I suffered with catarrh for over twenty years; settled up in my head and made me totally deaf. No doctor seemed to help. Dr. Coffey relieved the catarrh and restored the hearing practically perfect. His treatment is alright." Dr. Coffey is in his Davenport office in the First National Bank Bldg., every Saturday, Monday and Tuesday.—(Adv.)
